URGENT: PRODUCT RECALL

Dear Customer;

This is to inform you that Dukal is recalling the Burn Sheets identified below based on a report of a Burn Sheet (stored for an unknown period and in unknown conditions in an ambulance) that was reportedly “shredded” when the outer package was opened by an Emergency Medical Technician. Although we have not seen this phenomenon in any retained samples, we are recalling the identified units out of an abundance of caution. These lots were manufactured between 2007 and 2014, and last distributed by Dukal in August, 2014. There are no other [Lot/Product Codes] subject to this recall.
